| | A descriptive essay is a description of plausible reality, it creates a vivid picture or image of what the writer has seen, experienced, witness or imagined. The purpose of descriptive essay is to convey information, impression and ideas, it achieves this by evoking feelings, emotions and sensations of the reader. Descriptive essay combines narrative and expository paragraphs to give emphasis in the essay. Every writer is a creator of some sort. However, in writing descriptive essay the writer engages his power of imagination and creates a picture of reality in an acceptable manner to the reader. |
