

Bowen University, Iwo
College of Liberal Studies
History and International Studies
Examination questions

Course Code: HIS 421

Course Title: Major Issues in Contemporary International Relations

Session: 2023/2024

Semester: First

Course Credit: 2

Time Allowed: 2 hours, 30 minutes

Instruction: Answer any three (3) questions. All questions carry equal marks.

1. Apartheid was introduced by the white minority in South-Africa in order to control political power and economic resources. Explain.
2. Poverty is a key factor in the spread of international terrorism. Discuss.
3. a) Explain the concepts “Modernism and Post-Modernism”.
b) How does it impact on our contemporary world?
4. Religion has been an integral factor in politics across the world. Comment.
5. Discuss two factors responsible for the resurgence of xenophobic attacks on Nigerians in South-Africa.
6. In your view, what two factors among others are responsible for global warming?