

BOWEN UNIVERSITY, IWO

COLLEGE OF HEALTH SCIENCES, FACULTY OF BASIC MEDICAL & HEALTH SCIENCES

B.Sc. PUBLIC HEALTH PROGRAMME

1ST SEMESTER EXAMINATION (2023/2024 ACADEMIC SESSION)

PUH 213: INTRODUCTION TO PUBLIC HEALTH & PRIMARY HEALTHCARE

DATE: TUESDAY 30TH JANUARY, 2024 TIME ALLOWED: 2 hours. 30 minutes

INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES

1. Attempt ALL the FIVE questions
2. All questions attract equal marks
3. Write your matriculation number LEGIBLY on the answer booklet provided

QUESTIONS

1. Primary Health Care (PHC) is a strategy of the United Nations to bring basic healthcare services to the doorsteps of the people;
 - i. What do you understand by the term "Primary Healthcare"?
 - ii. Briefly explain some of the principles of primary healthcare
 - iii. Enumerate seven (7) of the components of Primary Healthcare
2. Public Health is one of the most important health-related disciplines designed to address population health problems;
 - i. Briefly explain the term "Public Health".
 - ii. What are the subspecialties of Public Health?
 - iii. List five (5) of the members of a Public Health Team.
3. Briefly explain the contributions of the following scientists to the evolution of Public Health
 - i. Prof Adeoye Lambo.
 - ii. Father Damien.
 - iii. Jim Carter Global 2000.
 - iv. Olikoye Ransom Kutu.
 - v. Prof. Oladele Ajose.

4. Graduates of Public Health Programme are needed to improve the health and well-being of Nigerians;
 - i. Describe some of the skills a Public Health graduate should possess for him/her to make positive impacts in the field.
 - ii. Highlight some of the settings/organizations in which public health graduates can work in Nigeria.
 - iii. Briefly explain the core functions of a Public Health Practitioner.
- 5 i.) Explain the different types of healthcare facilities in the Primary Health Care Arrangement.
 - ii.) List four members of a "Primary Health Care Team"
 - iii.) Explain the functions of a Medical Officer of Health as a member of the PHC Team.